

THURSDAY, JUNE 9. 1743.

Since our last arrived a Mail from France, and another from Flanders.

Rome, May 25.

On the 10th of this Month the Pope held a Consistory, in which he preconised Don Francisco Antonio Cavalcanti, Archbishop of Cosenza in the Kingdom of Naples; M. Dominic Anelli, Bishop of Andria in the same Kingdom; M. Hector Mobza, Bishop of Modena; M. Joseph Giusti, Bishop of Velletri in the Kingdom of Naples; M. Peter Gonzalez, Bishop of Avila in Spain; M. Dominic Pantaleon Alvarez de Abreu, Bishop of Ila Scala in the West Indies; Father Ignatius de Padilla, a Mexican, Archbishop of St. Domingo; M. Francis Copons, Abbot of the Abbey of Ripoll, of the Order of St. Benedict in the Diocese of Vic, and Father Peter Frelles, Abbot of St. Peter de Campo Rotundo, of the same Order, in the Diocese of Girona. Cardinal Aquaviva proposed M. John George le Franc de Pompeignan for the Bishopric of France; the Direction of the Abbey of St. Roman de Blavia, of the Order of Clerks Regular of St. Augustin, in the Diocese of Bourdeaux, for M. Joseph St. Andre de Marnays de Vercel; that of the Abbey St. Alban of Angers, of the Order of St. Benedict, for M. Lewis Guidon Guerassin de Vauréal, Bishop of Rennes, and Ambassador from the King of France to the Court of Spain; that of the Abbey of our Lady of Chateliers, of the Cistercian Order in the Diocese of Poitiers, for M. John Lewis Chataignier de Rouvre; and that of St. Julien de Fuxo, of the Order of Canons Regular of St. Augustin, in the Diocese of Pamiers, for M. Theodore le Tonnellier de Breteuil. Card. Alexander Albani proposed the Bishopric of Bruges, in Flanders, for M. John Baptist Lewis de Castillon, Bishop of Ruremond; and preconised M. Joseph Anselme Francois Werbroeck Bishop of Ruremond.

Dresden, June 1. General Count Lowendal, who lately quitted the Service of Russia, arrived here the Day before Yesterday from the Baths of Toplitz. His Excellency will very speedily set out for Venice, where he will enter into the Service of the Republick in Quality of Generalissimo. The Colonel of the Regiment of Belarde, who was sent to Prague to compliment the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia on account of her Coronation, is returned hither, having received at his Audience of Leave, from that Princess, a Ring of great Value. It is said, that his Majesty will, before the End of the Summer, make a Tour into Poland; and that the Diet will not be held at Grodno in Lithuania till the next Year. A thorough Change has happened in the Government of our Court, as well as of several other Princes of Germany. Our Army has again received Orders to hold themselves in readiness to march immediately, and we make no doubt, that it is with Intent to make a common Cause with the Allies in favour of the House of Austria. The great Point the powerful Friends of that August House have at present in View, seems to be the detaching the Emperor from his Alliance with France.

Ratisbon, June 6. The two Camps which lie before this City form the pleasantest Prospect in the World; that of the Austrians is in the Meadows of Stadthoff, that of the French in the Plain to the Right of this City. These last suffer excessively by Scarcity of Provisions, and by Desertion. All the Country in the Neighbourhood is ruined and destroyed, and a very promising Harvest trod under Foot. On Monday arrived the heavy baggage of Marshal Broglie at the Army, as also a great Number of Waggons laden with Ammunition and Provisions, which set out again the next Morning; some for Ingoldstadt, others for Donawert. His Serene Highness, Prince Charles of Lorraine, is marching with an imaginable Expedition towards Straubingen, in order to get the French between two Fires. But this they will certainly prevent, either by retreating or fighting; but the last is the least probable. The Confusion amongst their Troops is unspeakable; they abandon their Poits at the very Approach of the Austrians, and this very Moment we see all their Baggage and Equipages in Motion for Ingoldstadt, so that it is certain they intend to abandon Bavaria.

Extract from the Paris Almanac.

Paris, June 14. On the 9th the King held a Council of State, and on the 10th his Majesty gave Audience to Foreign Ambassadors.

On the 11th Marshal Belleisle returned from his Seat to Versailles; the same Day M. de Meffil set out on his Return for the Army on the Rhine. M. the Dauphin will be here on Tuesday next, in order to see the Opera of Phaeton.

Madame, the Duchess of Bourbon, received on the 9th all the Sacraments, and remains still in a very dangerous Condition. It is thought, that notwithstanding all the Care that can be taken, her Fiftula will turn to a Gangrene.

We are assured, that his Majesty has sent M. Noailles full Power to act against the Allies as he shall think proper; they have thrown 3 Bridges over the Main, and have actually passed that River; and we reckon all our Troops have already passed the Rhine, and that the Artillery will also pass it on the 17th.

It is very currently reported, that his Majesty has sent Orders to all our Troops in Bavaria to unite in a Body, and not to preserve any Post in a Country open on all Sides, and without any Place of secure Retreat.

They are then to make the best of their Way to Ingoldstadt, and it is said, that as to the Body of Troops which has received Orders to march into Bavaria, they are designed purely to disengage M. Broglie, and to favour his Retreat; who, it is said, in pursuance of the former Orders, has already abandoned Straubingen.

On Tuesday last arrived at Court an Express, with the News of Count Saxe having evacuated the Upper Palatinate, excepting only Amberg, where he has left a Garrison of two Battalions of Montmoren and that of the Chevalier de Dreux, making in all about 12 or 1300 Men. That on the 30th of last Month he had caused all the Sick to march out of that Town, and that they were employed in carrying off the Powder, Corn, Meal, and other Provisions; the Garrison having Orders to abandon the Place on the first Appearance of the Enemy. That the Count Saxe had retired to Stadthoff, and that, in his Retreat, he had been attacked by Prince Lobkowitz, who attempted to make himself Master of the Bridge, at the Head of which we have some Retrenchments; the Action was very warm on both Sides, and two Captains of the Regiment of Normandy lost their Lives.

The last Letters from Bavaria are of the 4th Inst. and they say, that the Marquis de Chazeron, who had his Quarters at Schirmell, where he commanded 150 Men, having received Advice on the 1st Instant, that the Enemy was advancing towards him, that General quitted his Post, and immediately retired to Kelheim, beyond Ratisbon.

Actions 2120.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.
SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handsomeness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly remove away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Rashes, Morpew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small-Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become so incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as cause Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing but Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, which of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red or raw to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and most charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates, neither this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the least Part of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lawn, and is agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it, under various other Names, because of the fore of such Impositions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to so many Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions and no where else in England.

For the immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever,
And also of
IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of so long Standing,
The Famous and Inestimable
PROLIFICK ELIXIR,
The highest, richest and most powerful Cordial in Nature is recommended,
BEING the only true and infallible Cure

for BARRENNESS in Women and IMPOTENCY in Men, the Universe, and which it at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have failed. Thousands have experienced, and that by promoting the full Circulation of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid, depressed State, to one more solid and sparkling, opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nervous encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Blood, and evidently replenishing the crispy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagined, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and profitably it renovates, recruits, and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression. It abounds of Ladies, who for several Years were deemed hopelessly barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and become Fruitful; and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who fast living, or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate the Species, inasmuch, that very many illustrious Families, who for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs. It rectifies all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weakness of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even keeps back the Effects of Old Age itself. It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, at 5 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
